Message from Mr Turtle

Our school value this week was honesty. As well as the traditional understanding of "telling the truth" we have been thinking about how this is also shown in how reflective we are about our own abilities and ways in which we can improve - have you really done your best? It can also mean sticking with what you believe, even if others do not agree. Well done to everyone who received this week's certificates.

Country Dancing

Yr3 & Yr4 Country Dancing
